February 7, 2019 Graeme Simsion, The Rosie Project

Don Tillman, a handsome genetics professor with a pathologically micromanaged life, can't seem to score a second date. After launching his Wife Project, which includes a hilarious questionnaire intended to weed out imperfect candidates--smokers, makeup wearers, vegans --Don meets Rosie, a stunning, maddeningly disorganized bartender/student who's looking for her biological father. Rosie's so wrong for Don, she's perfect. She helps Don break free from his precisely controlled, annoyingly sensible, and largely humorless lifestyle.

February 21, 2019 Lan Samantha Chang, Hunger

An intense exploration of the experience of being Asian American. The characters who inhabit this extraordinary fictional debut are caught between the burden of their past history and the fragility of their uncharted future. Hunger illuminates how first-generation immigrants from China, culturally and emotionally uprooted from their homeland, mistrust connection even as they hunger for attachment — and how the past affects and shapes their children.
